June, 1944, and a Volunteer, She Has Been Active in Local Organizations.

Jean Roving was born on May 15, 1921, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, the daughter of the late John Roving and Margaret (née Moore) Roving. She was a lifelong resident of New York, New York, and passed away on December 31, 2009, at the age of 88.

Jean was predeceased by her husband, William E. Thomas, Jr., and her son, John Roving. She is survived by her daughter, Mary Roving, and her grandchildren, Michael and Jessica Thomas.

Jean was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and served in the Navy during World War II. She was also a member of the American Red Cross and served as a volunteer nurse in Europe during the war.

She is survived by her brother, John Moore, and her sister, Margaret Moore. She was the proud mother of seven children: Mary Roving, William E. Thomas III, John Roving, Michael Moore, and Jessica Moore.

Jean was an active member of the Presbyterian Church in Westfield, New Jersey, where she was a member of the Women's Club and served in various capacities, including as a member of the Deaconess Board.

Jean was a devoted mother and grandmother, and she will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Obituaries

Jean ‘Penny’ Farrell, 77, Was Active With Hospital, Zoo, PBS Fundraising

Jean ‘Penny’ Farrell, 77, of Watchung, passed away peacefully on the afternoon of Thursday, December 31, 2009, surrounded by her family. She was born in Watchung, New Jersey, on February 28, 1932, and is survived by her husband, Bob, and her son, John.

Jean was a devoted volunteer at the Watchung Memorial Hospital, where she served as a receptionist for many years.

She was also a dedicated volunteer at the New Jersey State Museum, where she served as a tour guide for many years.

Jean was a member of the New York City Zoo, where she served as a volunteer for many years.

She was predeceased by her parents, Joseph and Mary Farrell, and her brother, James.

Jean is survived by her husband, Bob, and her son, John.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the New Jersey State Museum.

Lloyd B. Temes, 71, College Professor; Westfield Rescue Squad Dispatcher

Lloyd B. Temes, 71, a college professor and Westfield Rescue Squad dispatcher, passed away on December 31, 2009. He was born in Watchung, New Jersey, on February 12, 1938, and is survived by his wife, Martha, and their daughter, Elizabeth.

Lloyd was a professor at the College of Saint Elizabeth in Westfield, where he taught psychology and sociology for many years.

He was also a dedicated volunteer at the Westfield Rescue Squad, where he served as a dispatcher for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Martha, and their daughter, Elizabeth.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Westfield Rescue Squad.

Bruce A. Shafer, 70, a Member of the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce

Bruce A. Shafer, 70, a member of the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, passed away on December 31, 2009, after a brief illness.

He was born in Watchung, New Jersey, on January 1, 1940, and is survived by his wife, Terri, and their daughter, Lauren.

Bruce was a member of the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce, where he served as a member for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Terri, and their daughter, Lauren.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Westfield Area Chamber of Commerce.

June Wells, 88, Was Hospital Volunteer; Enjoyed Sports, Gardening and Family

June Wells, 88, a hospital volunteer and retired nurse, passed away on December 31, 2009, after a brief illness.

She was born in Watchung, New Jersey, on June 25, 1921, and is survived by her children, David, John, and Laurette.

June was a volunteer at the Watchung Memorial Hospital, where she served as a receptionist for many years.

She was also a dedicated nurse, where she served for many years.

She is survived by her children, David, John, and Laurette.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Watchung Memorial Hospital.