

HISTORIC LEGACY...In 1997, the Scotch Plains Baptist Church on Park Avenue celebrated the 250th anniversary of the founding of its congregation. Throughout its long history, from Colonialism to the computer age, the church has represented a strong faith community in the township. The adjacent cemetery, originally known as "God's Little Acre," is the final resting place of many original settlers in the area and 24 soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War. The church held a series of special events last year to commemorate its milestone.

Relax into Resort Living at Monroe Village

Virginia Phillips has come home to her roots in New Jersey. A professional dancer in New York City, she turned in her dancing shoes to marry and raise her two sons. She and her husband retired to Cape Cod, and now she has moved to Monroe Village to be close to her family.

"Monroe Village is the perfect place for me"

"I want to be part of their lives, and really know my grandchildren. Monroe Village takes care of all the irritating necessities of life so I am free to spend time with them or have a night on the town in Princeton or New York with my new friends, volunteer or walk the beautiful nature trails. I love being busy and there is so much to do here."
