Evelyn Gottlich, 92, Sang With USO:
Was Great-Grandmother of 49

Evelyn Gottlich of Berkeley Heights, a World War II veteran and a former schoolteacher, died on Wednesday, January 5, at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston. She was 92.

Born and raised in Colonia, Mrs. Gottlich enlisted in the USO in 1944. She served as a musical director for the USO in Europe and received the Hammerstein Award for her contributions. She was the mother of Richard C. Gottlich of Berkeley Heights, a daughter, Marjorie C. Southard of Berkeley Heights, and 47 grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. today, Thursday, January 13, at Our Lady of Lourdes Church of Berkeley Heights. Interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery in Edgewater, N.J.

Dr. Charles Nadel, 93, Introduced
Techniques for Scoliosis Treatment

Dr. Charles Nadel of Scotch Plains died on Monday, January 10, 2000, in Mountainside Hospital, at the age of 93.

A native of Camden, he had lived in Irvington and Summit before moving to Scotch Plains six months ago.

He had studied at the University of the Cervical Pain Treatment Center of New York, East Orange, and Bellvue and of the Cervical Pain Litigation Unit of Cervical Center.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

Alice Franklin, 63

Alice Franklin of Scotch Plains died on Monday, January 10, 2000, in Mountainside Hospital, at the age of 63.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are her husband, Dr. Stuart Franklin, of Scotch Plains; four children, Dr. Charles Franklin, of Stanford, Calif.; Dr. Jonathan Franklin, of Washington, D.C.; Dr. James Franklin, of Stanford, Calif.; and Mr. Alan Franklin, of Timonium, Md.; and seven grandchildren.

Robert Wendell Bender, 80,
Manager, Was Active With Local Organizations

Robert Wendell Bender of Scotch Plains, a retired manager and a local volunteer, died on Monday, January 3, 2000, at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston. He was 80.

Mr. Bender was a son of the Rev. Wendell A. Bender, of the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church in Scotch Plains, and of Patricia Reed Bender, of First Baptist Church of Scotch Plains, both of Scotch Plains.

He had been a member of the Board of Managers of the United States Lines; the New York City Chapter, United Jewish Appeal; and the National Jewish Welfare Board.

Surviving are his wife, Marjorie, of Scotch Plains; two daughters, Nancy Phillips of Henderson, Nev., and Cynthia and her husband, Dr. Napolitano, of Cardiff, Calif.; and four grandchildren.

Evelyn M. Nelson Gottlick, 92, of Westfield

Evelyn M. Nelson Gottlick of Westfield; two daughters, Evelyn M. Gottlick of Scotch Plains and Gail Wood of Westfield; four grandchildren.

She had worked for 30 years at the East Orange General Hospital, where she was a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are her husband, William; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.

She had been employed as a dietary technician for Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center for 10 years and had been an assembler for Continental Can Co. for 10 years.

Surviving are his wife, Marian; four children, Michael, a resident of Scotch Plains; Mark, of Harrison; David, of Scotch Plains; and Cynthia, of Lakewood; and eight grandchildren.