The couple plan to be married in June.

Genealogical Society to Meet Today at W. Memorial Library

While no two ancestries are alike, the problems of others and their solutions often lead an individual to a successful search for his or her own ancestry. So says Professor August J. Molnar, who will address the Genealogical Society of the West Fields (GWF) on Hungarian-American Ancestry today, Thursday, April 9, at 1 p.m. in the Program Room of the Westfield Memorial Library, located at 550 East Broad Street.

Lions Club to Present Benefit Flea Market

The Scotch Plains Lions Club will hold a flea market at the Fanwood Train Station on Saturday, April 18, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Lions will have a food stand and cake sale as part of the event. More than 100 vendors are expected to participate, offering a variety of products, according to club Secretary Arthur G. Fowler.

Profits will go to the club's Sight Conservation and Community Betterment Funds.

For further information, please call Norman Bendel at (908) 322-1663.

Professor Molnar has published numerous literary publications, including two books, "Hugarian Writers in Literature" and "A Dictionary of American Immigration." The latter classifies immigrants to North American shores, according to country of origin and reasons which caused immigration. Professor Molnar resides in New Brunswick. The meeting is open to the public at no charge, and light refreshments will be served. Additional details about the meeting may be obtained by calling (908) 232-6419.
