Devil 8th-Graders Tie Maplewood Laxers, 4-4

Going into the final quarter of regulation play in their game against Maplewood at Tamaquas School on May 21, the Westfield Lacrosse Association 8th Grade team trailed 2-1 and had played lethargically through much of the contest. Suddenly realizing the urgency of the situation, the Blue Devils came to life, controlling the ball and keeping pressure on the Maplewood goalie.

A crease violation call negated one score, but with less than 40 seconds remaining, Greg Elliott broke free in front and cranked a blistering shot into the net, tying the score and sending the contest into a five-minute overtime.

The overtime saw as much scoring as the previous 40 minutes. Duffy Lau put Westfield on top for the first time in the game just moments into the extra session, but a defensive letdown followed and once again the game was tied. Westfield struck and Maplewood countered. As time wound down, attackman Tim Mansfield found midday Mike DeBrossy in front and DeBrossy pumped the ball home. But Maplewood won the ensuing game-off, found a wide open area to goalie Key Riley's right and knotted the game for the final time on a bouncing shot.

The Devils play in Hopewell Valley on May 30 following their last home game of the season on the 27th.

Westfield Killer Bees Shutout Somerset Hills Devils, 1-0

The U-11 Westfield Killer Bees defeated the Somerset Hills Devils, 1-0, in Somerset Hills to boost their soccer record to 6-2-1. The Bees have now avenged their only two losses of the season by shutting out those teams the past two weeks at the opposition's home fields.

The Westfield squad has surrendered only six goals in nine games while scoring 19 times and they have posted five shutouts in the top flight.

Both teams played spectacular defense throughout the game and were both aggressive and physical. The Bees were led by sweeper/keeper Jessie Elkoury, stopper/sweeper Gio Palatucci, fullback Emily Macneil, and halfbacks Jenna Pedergreen and Lauren Purdy who would always try to be first to the ball.

The first half also saw great pressure put on the Devils by the Westfield fullbacks, halfbacks and stopper, Justine Palme, Amanda Dickson, Ali Carter, Mary Kate Maher and Danielle Fried.

The second half picked up where it left off except that the game became even more physical. The Killer Bees took a 1-0 lead midway through the second half when wing Hannah Burke fought to keep the ball alive on the left side of the field. Federgreen, crossed it perfectly to striker Fried who took the pass in stride. Fried shot it to the right side of the out-stretched Devil keeper who had come out of the goal in order to cut down the angle. When she failed to do so, right wing Melissa Rosen, who was trailing the play perfectly, kicked the ball into the empty net for the score.

In a game that was won by the defense, fullback Stephanie Bridgeman, Annie Onishi, and Caroline Carrise also played well. The last 15 minutes of the game was particularly hard-fought but the game ended with a 1-0 Westfield victory.

Westfield will face Wayne in their final game of the regular season on May 31st at Jefferson Field in Westfield at 2:00 P.M. in a game that should determine the top-flight winner of the Mid-Jersey League. The last time these teams met the game ended in a 1-1 tie.

SPF Red Fireballs Meet With SPF Green Hornets

On Saturday, May 23rd, the Red Fireballs (Team #5) and the Green Hornets (Team #4) of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Youth Baseball Association Tee Ball Division met in a very well played game. Both teams did an outstanding job in the field and at the plate.

Offensively, the Red Fireballs were lead by Jennifer DiGiuseppe who was a perfect 3-for-3 on the day and drove in 4 runs. Kelly Cianciotta was also 3-for-3 and picked up 3 RBI. Chris Vicari knocked in 2 runs while collecting 3 base hits in the game. James Wheeler and Becca Kaplan were each 3-for-3 with 2 RBI.

Joseph Del Prete was 3-for-3 with an RBI while Ricky Madurski and Blake Van Buskirk also chipped in with a perfect 3-for-3. The Fireballs also got an emotional lift as Ryan Keavney returned from a pre-season arm injury for his first game of the year and collected 2 hits while knocking in a run.

Defensively, the Fireballs have improved each game. Del Prete had an outstanding game in the field as he collected 5 putouts and an assist. Cianciotta and Van Buskirk also had stellar games in the field as each collected 2 putouts on the day while Vicari picked up an assist. Wheeler, Keavney, Kaplan, DiGiuseppe and Madurski displayed excellent instincts as they backed up plays and threw the ball to the correct base throughout the game.

The Fireballs also displayed speed and aggressiveness on the base paths. Madurski, Vicari and Wheeler each scored 3 runs. Van Buskirk, Keavney and Del Prete added 2 runs apiece while Cianciotta scored once.

WESTFIELD 5TH/6TH GIRLS LACROSSE...The 5th/6th grade girls lacrosse team had a successful 3-3 season. See story on page 15.

SP-F Golden Eagles Fly High; Snag 1st at Chatham Tourney

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Golden Eagles went undefeated, taking first place in the Chatham Memorial Day Tourney, May 23 and 24. The Eagles fought back from a 2-0 halftime deficit to start with a with a 3-2 victory over a tough Vemon squad.

The first half was a defensive battle, with Karen Gassier in goal keeping the score close for Scotch Plains. The Eagles put tremendous pressure on Vemon as the second half opened, with Kristin Zyla scoring as the Eagle offense stormed the goal.

Minutes later, Tayler Montagna drove through the defense and dropped the ball off to Carly Wells. After a defender interfered, Wells lined her penalty kick into the upper right corner to tie the score. Zyla scored in a crowd once again to grab a 3-2 lead for the Eagles.

The Eagles continued to dominate play through most of the second half, but Vemon threatened with two breakaways in the final minutes that goalie Elise DeVries stopped cold to save the Eagle victory.

In the second game, the Eagles again battled back from a two goal deficit against the Parsippany Hurricanes. Kelly Rigano took a pass from Montagna and put the Eagles' first score into the corner of the net. As the first half was coming to a close, Zyla again showed her scoring skills, blasting a kick beyond the keeper's hands.

The Eagles threatened throughout the second half but were unable to take advantage of numerous scoring opportunities. The strong work by midfielders Shannon Hassett, Jennifer Villas and Stephanie Splendorio cut off several Hurricane drives and all three came close to scoring with several ferocious kicks from the 18 yard line. The Eagles gave up a quick goal then stormed back to a surprisingly easy 5-1 win over a strong team from Scarsdale, New York. Zyla led the Eagles with a hat trick, scoring the first third and fifth goals.

Lauren Perrotta, Tayler Montagna and Erin O'Connor starred on defense, applying offensive pressure and getting back to cut off every Scarsdale threat. Jenna Balestriere lined a shot over the goalie after driving through two defenders for the second Eagle goal and passed to Elizabeth Elko to set up the fourth. Rigano started in goal for the Eagles and DeVries handled the second-half keep.

The Eagles' final game of the tournament was a romp over the host team from Chatham. The final score was 9-0. Rigano opened the scoring for the Eagles, booting in a centering pass from Balestriere. Minutes later, Rigano scored again when the keeper mishandled a save on a Balestriere shot. Rigano seized the opportunity and kicked in the bobbed ball. Balestriere ended the scoring in the first half with two goals of her own.

Opening the second half, Rigano moved the ball down field and fed Balestriere who scored the hat trick. Minutes later, Rigano stole the ball from a Chatham defender and quickly used the opportunity to earn her own hat trick.

The Eagles moved their defenders up to the front line and added more goals. First, Montagna scored with a shot which angled past the goalie into the far corner of the goal. Then, Jeanette Franzone sent a high kick well above the keeper's reach. Finally, Perrotta took a feed from Splendorio and booted in the Eagles last score.
