Girls' 5th and 6th Grade Laxers End With Double Wins

The 5th/6th grade girls' Westfield lacrosse team finished its season on a high note. The blue squad and the white squad both challenged Chatham in their final season games. The Blue team traveled to Chatham where they closed out their season with a resounding score of 12-2. The white squad played the other Chatham team at home in Westfield and easily captured a win with a final score of 8-1.

The 48 girl laxers were divided into two equal squads at the beginning of the season. Each of the squads practiced twice a week and played a six-game schedule that included such powerhouse lacrosse teams as Ridgewood, Mountain Lakes, and Madison.

Both of the squads finished the season with impressive 3-3 records. Their record reflects the hard work and positive team spirit that were shown by all the girls.

Youth Tennis Will Have New Coach

Rita Bokert will be in charge of the Scotch Plains-Fanwood Youth Tennis Team program starting this summer. Bokert will be taking over for Dale and Barbara Hooper who have retired. Try-outs are scheduled for 1:00 p.m. on June 22 at Kramer Manor Courts.

Mrs. Bokert has been involved in various areas of tennis for over twenty-five years. She has been a member of teams that play on indoor courts. She was instrumental in organizing and keeping necessary records for the local Woman's Ladder (which at its peak had over thirty participants) and has substituted for the Hoopers when needed. The Recreation Department is fortunate in having such a worthy successor to the Hoopers.

At the present time, Donald Van Blake of Plainfield, will be taking over for Wally Katz, formerly director of the Youth Tennis Foundation of New Jersey. Coaches of teams who have been participants in the foundation have been contacted and asked to signify their interest in being part of the Youth Tennis League for 1998. A schedule of matches must be arranged for away games. All practices and home matches are played on the courts at Kramer Manor Park. Interested youths are urged to attend the try-out and be part of the program which culminates in a state tournament held in August. For further information, call 322-6700.

United Squad Tops SPF Sabers, 4-1

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood U-11 Sabers traveled to Somerset Hills to meet the talented Newcastle United squad. The Sabers played a great game of soccer, but came away on the short end of a 4-1 score sheet.

One Somerset Hills player registered a first-half three-goal hat trick despite the strong Sabers defensive effort. Greg Leischner was impervious in the back with Bill Schoenbach, Adam Greenwald, Jeff Bell and Ryan Aspell doing their best to hold out the Newcastle attack. Bill Albizzati made several outstanding saves. Terrance Charles took over the net minding duties late in the first half. The Sabers offense led by Sean McNelis, Charles, Bell, Matt Colon, and Schoenbach came close several times, but could not beat the Somerset Hills keeper.

The Sabers started well after the intermission with a goal by McNelis in the first minute. Leischner moved up to wing to fortify the attack. His effort to split the Newcastle defense was shot just a bit too high. Sean Smith and Bell also placed some hard shots, but the goals did not come. Steve Gaetano was superb in midfield to direct the ball into the attack. Patrick Schiavo, Robert Lasher, Colon, Greenwald, and Aspell had a fine second half holding Somerset Hills to just one goal. Charles continued his great play in goal with a number of saves, including a beauty in the final seconds.

The Sabers will spend Memorial Day competing in the annual Maplewood tournament against top teams from around the region.

Scotch Plains Twirlers Hold Season Finale at Park School

Girls enrolled in the Twirling Program sponsored by the Scotch Plains Department of Parks and Recreation from January through May recently held their season finale at Park Middle School in Scotch Plains.

Their instructor was Marie Victoria Gostel, a state champion in 1996 and 1997. Ms. Gostel captured the All-East Regional Championships, and took fourth place in the North Atlantic Region Twirling Championships.

Starring in routines formulated by Ms. Gostel were Christine Ruggieri, Stacia Piesch, Samantha Shaffer, Candace Barnes, Carys Davis, Kelly Dougher and Tamie Walker. In addition, 10-year-old Christina Cerutti gave a special performance using two batons and ballet-like moves during the program.

The girls performed to music including "New York, New York," "Show Twirl," "Strut" and a holiday marching routine. Parents contributed refreshments and Ms. Gostel's family also assisted with the production.

Registration will open in September at the Scotch Plains Recreation Office for the fall session of the twirling program, which is open to girls ages six to 13.

Devil 7th/8th Laxers Topple Dazed Chatham Girls, 9-2

Westfield's 7th & 8th grade girls lacrosse team defeated Chatham, 9-2, on May 19 in Chatham. The Westfield team scored in the first minute of the game with a shot into the corner of the goal by third home Brittany Miller assisted by right attack wing, Kristin Pollack.

Westfield played a strong and consistent game, dominating the field throughout the game and displaying excellent passing skills. Westfield's left attack wings, Amanda Shutts, Chrissy Romano and Miller aggressively retrieved centers Morgan Lang and Kristie Mann's opening draws and then utilized "give and goes" to move the ball down the field toward the goal. Homes Elizabeth Perrella, Elizabeth Salemme and Elyse Goldweitz rotated through the 8-meter arc to receive passes from the oncoming attack. Lang, on a pass from Meg Smith, came from midfield to dodge Chatham's defense and shot left-handed for another Westfield goal.

Playing defense wing positions were Kristin Anton, Sarah Round, Meg Smith, Nicole Tomasso and Elyse Goldweitz who guarded Chatham's attack wings, prohibiting them from scoring and connecting the ball to Westfield's offensive players. By the end of the first half, the score was 5-0 on additional goals scored by center Morgan Lang, second home Elizabeth Salemme, attack wing Kristin Pollack and third home Brittany Miller on assists from first home Lisa Paul, Pollack and Miller.

During the second half, the attack and defense wings continued to move the ball toward the goal by using continuous short passes. Shutts fired in two shots from the left side assisted by Lang and Miller, and Lang made another from the right side assisted by Miller. Cutting from behind the goal to receive a pass from Shutts was first home Lisa Paul who pivoted and blasted one past Chatham's goalie for another Westfield goal.

Westfield's defense was played by Ali Pino and Nicole Infantino at third man. Jessica Tymanski at cover point, Rachel Bavolar at point and Jen Star in the net. The defense marked their Chatham opponents with excellent man-to-man defense as well as employing double team strategy when Chatham's offense entered Westfield's 12 meter fan. Pino and Infantino made a strong showing by intercepting several Chatham passes, while Tymanski and Bavolar aggressively went for ground balls in the goal area. Star saved many shots and cleared the ball to Westfield's midfield. The strong Westfield defense held Chatham to only two goals.

The Westfield team finished the season with a 5 and 2 record, losing only to Summit 8-5 and to Ridgewood in an extremely close game by 8-7. Victories over Mt. Lakes 12-6, Chester 10-5, Millburn 10-6 and Madison 12-6 completed the very successful season.
