Clark Tournament Sees Westfield Tens Advance

The Westfield Tens team beat North Edison, 6-1, and Clark, 6-5, to advance in the Clark Tens Tournament on June 19-20.

First, against North Edison, Kevin Hennessey walked, then stole second. A double by Mike Venezia put Westfield ahead 1-0. North Edison came back in the top of the fourth with a walk and a double to center to tie up the score, 1-1. Ross Abramowitz threw two strikeouts and an out by first baseman Sam Crawford retired the side.

Hennessey ignited a fourth inning rally, then Kyle Fleming singled him home. Abramowitz singled, then Fleming advanced to third on a steal. Sean Ferro was hit by a pitch, then Fleming stole home to make the score 3-1. Pat Gessner singled to load the bases. Timothy Jacob had an RBI single and Colin Callahan followed with a two-run single to jump the score to 6-1.

Next, against Clark, Hennessey walked in the bottom of the first and Fleming doubled him home to put Westfield ahead 1-0. Then, in the third, singles by Joe Tressitt and Peter Rucinsky, and a punt by Hennessey loaded the bases. Fleming stepped up and drilled a two-run double. Moments later, Hennessey stole home to boost the score to 4-0.

Clark scored a run in the top of the fourth; however, Westfield catcher Venezia threw out a runner attempting to steal third and tagged out a runner attempting to steal home. In the bottom of the fourth, Crawford singled but Westfield failed to score.

Clark roared back in the fifth to tie the score, 4-4, but another thwarted attempt to steal third stopped Clark from further scoring. In the bottom of the fifth, Nick Barba walked, Hennessey was hit by a pitch and Venezia singled to load the bases. Next, Fleming was hit by a pitch to force in a run, giving Westfield a 5-4 lead.

RESOLUTION

PUBLIC WORKS COMMITTEE

WHEREAS, the Town received a Year XXIII Community Development Block Grant to finance the preparation of architectural plans and specifications for the construction of new ADA-accessible restroom facilities near the lower parking lot in Tamaques Park, and

WHEREAS, Town Council retained the architectural firm of Vincentsen Associates to prepare the aforesaid plans and specifications, and

WHEREAS, Town Council now desires to proceed with construction of the new restroom facilities, and

WHEREAS, the Department of Public Works does not have the architectural expertise required to prepare the construction bid documents and manage construction for such facilities, and

WHEREAS, Vincentsen Associates submitted a proposal dated June 11, 1999 to the Town Engineer to provide professional architectural services required in connection with preparation of bid documents, evaluation of bids, construction administration and post construction compliance for the proposed restroom facilities for a fee in the amount of $7,000.00, and

WHEREAS, the Town Engineer has reviewed the aforesaid Proposal and recommends that a professional services contract for performance of the described work be awarded to Vincentsen Associates for the above-stated fee of $7,000.00, and

WHEREAS, funds are available for this purpose from Special Ordinance No. 1974.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Town Council for the Town of Westfield that the aforementioned contract for professional architectural services be awarded to Vincentsen Associates, 238 St. Paul Street, Westfield, New Jersey 07090 in the amount of $7,000.00, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this professional services contract is awarded without public bidding in accordance with N.J.S.A. 40A:11-5 (Local Public Contracts Law), and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the fees under this contract be charged to Special Ordinance No. 1974, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be published in The Westfield Leader as Public Notice of Action Taken in accordance with N.J.S.A. 40A:11-5.

second as Cohen scored and Lowell Weiner wobbled a grounder to second which allowed Powers to score.

Still with offensive clout, C. B. I. stretched its lead to 14-6 in the third. Schwartz and Frank both singled to right and Weisholtz lofted a shot which popped out of the right fielder's glove. Meyerson yanked an RBI single over third and Lowenthal chopped the ball over the shortstop's glove as two runs scored. Lavoy ricocheted a single off the pitcher. Port punched an RBI single to right and Kirschbaum walked with the bases loaded. The offensive ended when Thunder pitcher Parisi initiated a pitcher-to-second-to-first doubleplay.

The Red Thunder returned with six in the bottom of the inning, narrowing the score to 14-12. Fleishman did it again. His drive to center rolled on an on, allowing him to touch all four bases. Brian Saftlas squibbled a single up-the-middle and Marc Stern lofted an RBI triple in left. Jon Applebaum bounced an RBI single past short, then Cohen clobbered a two-run homer down the left field line. Eric Weiss pulled his Houdini act when his seemingly harmless grounder in left eluded the left fielder.

Presto! Weiss showed up at home with another run.

Bewildered and exhausted from the heat, C. B. I.'s run production dwindled to one in the fourth. Even more interesting, Hafel drilled a shot which endlessly rolled in center. Hafel rounded the bases but was called out for missing second. Next, Schwartz's fly was mishandled in right, Frank singled to center and Weisholtz's grounder to short brought home Schwartz.

The final scoring took place in the bottom of the fifth when the Red Thunder grumbled with four runs to take the lead. Fleishman thumped a leadoff triple, Saftlas dribbled an infield single, then Stern slapped a single to left. Applebaum bounced an infield single, Cohen hit an RBI sacrifice fly and Weiss whacked an RBI single to left. Powers brought in the winning run with a line single past third.

In the top of the seventh, the Red Thunder preserved its victory when Shinderman at short fielded a grounder, stepped on second and fired to first for a double play, then a fly ball to center was caught.

SPF 8's Baseballers Stagger Elmora, 8-4, in Cranford

The Scotch Plains-Fanwood Youth Baseball Association 8-year old tournament team continued their winning ways in the Cranford Tournament by topping Elmora, 8-4, on June 27. The Raiders won their second consecutive come from behind nail-biter.

The Raiders took an early 3-1 lead after one inning. Joseph Del Prete stroked a double and scored on James Wheeler's RBI single. Jimmy Burke singled and with runners on second and third, Tyler Della Badia roped a double for two RBI. Elmora battled back for three runs to take a 4-3 lead.

In the bottom of the fifth, Del Prete got the Raiders rolling as he lead off with a single. Wheeler followed with a single and Michael Klotz tied the game up with an RBI single. Burke then smacked a two-run double. Jackson Udelsman cracked a two-run homer as the Raiders rallied for five runs and an 8-4 victory.

The Raiders got some outstanding pitching on the day. Klotz started on the mound and struck out seven in three innings. Tom Holt pitched a very solid fourth inning. William Hubbard picked up the win in relief as he threw the final two scoreless innings. The Raider pitching was helped out by some excellent defense. The defensive star of the game for the Raiders was Kyle Richers who made two outstanding grabs in the outfield. Brendan McEvoy also contributed with a stellar game in the field.

WISELY SELECTING THE PROPER PITCH...Ron Shovlin of the Mattress Factory did not bite at bad pitches and finished with two singles and an RBI sacrifice fly against A. J. Jersey.

liner off the bat of Paul Meade.

In the third, after drilling several foul balls into the back yards of adjacent homes, Johnson drew a leadoff base-on-balls. Shovlin shoved a single to left-center and Factor fractured an RBI single to right-center. Joe Walsh went to the opposite field and dropped an RBI single just below the reach of a sliding Mike Novy in right to give the Mattress Factory a 9-1 lead.

A. J. Jersey posed a mild threat in the fourth when Ciullo walked and Hobson hammered a single off the chest, neck and cheek of the fearless Joe Walsh at third. After Walsh checked to see if he was still in one piece, the Factory defense held the Jersey men scoreless.

The Factory manufactured another run in the fourth. Tim Walsh whacked a single past second and Perotta walked. Johnson loaded the bases by jerking a single to right. Shovlin brought home Walsh with an RBI sacrifice fly to right.

After the Jersey offensive went down silently in the fifth, Scher crushed his solo homer to deep center to up the lead to 11-1. Hoping to get some offense going in the sixth, Ray Hurt slapped a leadoff double to left for A. J. Jersey. But a great catch by Kevin Zippler in left, a fine fielding play by Scher at third and another nice snag by Zippler squashed any hopes of scoring.

Down to its final three outs, A. J. Jersey mounted another mild offensive. Kevin Price pounded a shot to deep center and successfully touched all four bases. Tom Price followed by reaching base safely on a throwing error, then Lipshtitz plunked a single to right. Drew Koski concluded the scoring with an RBI single to right-center.
