

Westfield AARP Members To Meet With Freeholder

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Area Chapter No. 4137 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will meet on Monday, October 4, at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield. The social period with refreshments will begin at 1 p.m. and the meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. to be followed by the guest speaker.

Nicholas P. Scutari, Chairman of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be, "The History of the Freeholders and Future Plans."

He will present the areas over which the Freeholders govern such as a segment of the court system, the sheriff's office and county prisons, county parks and recreation including its own police force, three public golf courses, cultural programs and agencies to help the poor and the elderly. Freeholder Scutari will review the services offered to Union County residents.

Members are reminded to voluntarily bring non-perishable grocery items such as canned, boxed, and paper products for the Food Pantry to be donated to the poor, homeless and temporarily unemployed individuals.

There are still a few openings for the two-day trip on Wednesday and Thursday, December 1 and 2, to the Sight and Sound Theater to see, "The Miracle of Christmas," a smorgasbord dinner and other meals and a tour of Wheatland, the home of President James Buchanan.

For more information or reservations, please call Betty Montag at (908) 232-7153.

The trip to the Great Smoky Mountains in October is filled. More day and overnight trips are being planned for the year 2000 by the Trips and Tours Committee. Those trips will be announced soon.

Owen McWilliams issued dates for the 55-Alive driver education program. The cost is $8, and there is a 5 percent discount on one's automobile insurance policy as per New Jersey Law.

Advance reservations are required. The two-day sessions must be attended from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., which will include lectures and videos about safe driving. There is no road test.

The first session will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 6 and 7, at the Union Hospital Store Front Office, 973 Stuyvesant Avenue, Union. For reservations, please call (973) 325-6503.

The next session will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 27 and 28, at the same hour and location. For reservations, please call (908) 810-9523.

For more information, please call Hazel Hardgrove at (973) 376-3348.

TAKE TAYLOR HOME... People for Animals, a non-profit animal welfare organization serving New Jersey, will participate in the PetsMart national pet adopt-a-thon on Saturday and Sunday, October 2 and 3, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the PetsMart store, 1022 Route 22 East at West End Avenue in North Plainfield. Many dogs, cats and kittens will be available. Among these pets will be Taylor, a beautiful four-year-old large white cat with gray tabby markings. Taylor is front declawed, spayed, current with her vaccinations, tested negative to feline leukemia and feline immunodeficiency virus. She was abandoned by her owners who moved and left her outside in January to fend for herself. She is talkative and likes to sit on your lap. Taylor loves people, but is frightened of other pets. To adopt a pet, or for pet information, please call (908) 688-1073 or visit www.petfinder.org/shelters/NJ17.html.

Westfield Thrift Shop Slates Halloween Costume Sale

WESTFIELD — The Westfield Service League's annual costume sale will begin Tuesday, October 5, at its Thrift Shop located at 114 Elmer Street.

A large selection of Halloween dress-up clothing and accessories will be available at low prices. The shop is open from Tuesday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

On Tuesday, October 12, the Thrift Shop will hold a coat sale. The shop will offer a large selection of men's, women's and children's fall and winter coats.

Patrons can also purchase fall and winter apparel, jewelry, shoes and accessories to compliment their wardrobe.

Housewares, books and toys may also be purchased at the Thrift Shop.

The Westfield Service League, a non-profit, volunteer organization owns and operates the Thrift Shop and Consignment Shop, from which all proceeds are donated to local charities.

The League provides dispatchers for the Westfield Volunteer Rescue Squad and drivers for Mobile Meals of Westfield.

For additional information, please call the Thrift Shop at (908) 233-2530.
